PROPOSED COLLIN COUNTY HUMANE SOCIETY SHELTER

WHO WE ARE

The Collin County Humane Society (CCHS) is a 501c3 organization established in March 2008. We are a group of volunteers dedicated to giving homeless and unwanted pets a second chance at life. CCHS maintains 80-100 dogs in our program at all times. We operate through foster homes and with the support of public donations. We do not receive any state or federal funding, so your donation means our survival.

OUR SHELTER PLANS

CCHS is working toward our goal to build a new adoption facility in Collin County. The facility will house cats, kittens, dogs and puppies that are ready for adoption. It will also have four eco-friendly dog parks, a grooming suite, and offer boarding and daycare to the public. Gone are the days where people view animal shelters as depressing and scary buildings. The facility will be constructed in such a fashion that will not only help with public awareness about adopting a pet from a rescue group, but will also encourage people to keep coming back for more. Webcams, windmills, canopies, and many windows will truly make this shelter stand out from the rest and also improve the quality of life for the animals being housed at the facility. Once the shelter is built, CCHS will continue to operate through the work and dedication of foster homes, but the facility will serve as the powerhouse to help improve adoptions and increase our animal intake capabilities.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

While we are in the building process, you have the chance to put your paw print anywhere on the shelter: the reception area, a dog park, the cat colony, a dog run, or an individual cage. You can honor a loved one, remember a beloved pet, or simply celebrate and support the work of CCHS by becoming a sponsor for the shelter. An engraved plaque will be placed in your chosen area.
